Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4, and 19-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Knaebel (US Pat. No 4,152,624).

Knaebel discloses a lamp assembly and method of making the same comprising, a housing (15) having an interior surface (67,69,71, and 73, fig. 2) and an exterior surface (21,23, fig. 2), a conductive lead frame molded (94, col. 8, line 65) into the housing, the conductive lead frame comprising at least one positive connection pad (45), and at least one negative (across from 47) connection pad adjacent to the at least one positive connection pad at the interior surface of the housing and a means (inherent) to electrically communicate the at least one positive connection pad and the at least one negative connection pad to the exterior surface of the housing, and at least one light emitting diode light source (57, fig. 2) positioned inside the housing and electrically connected across the at least one negative connection pad and the at least one positive connection pad, comprising LED drive components electrically connected across the at least one negative connection pad and the at least one positive connection pad, a lens (59) attached to the housing a positive terminal extending from the exterior of the housing and electrically connected to the positive lead line, and a negative terminal extending from the exterior surface of the housing and electrically connected to the negative lead line, where the positive terminal and the negative terminal can be connected to an external source of electricity (fig. 2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Knaebel (US Pat. No 4,152,624) in view of Pederson (US Pat. No 6,705,745).

Knaebel discloses the claimed invention as applied above but doesn't teach that LED emits any wavelength or combination of wavelengths. However, Pederson teaches that LED is known to provide alternative colored light which each color has different wavelength and LED light sources may be electrically controlled for the provision of any desired pattern of light. Therefore, it would have been obvious to an ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate a control circuitry into the lamp device of Knaebel to provide different color/wavelength LED in order to achieve a desired pattern of light as taught by Pederson.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
